

1 UN : Soldiers from Oscearta are gathering on the border to Oceana.

1 UN: Bailloc and Widjhai have asked for cooperation from the international community if the outbreak spreads to their countries.

2 UN: One large and aggressive international partner/country has suggested military intervention and is willing to commit its air force to strategic air strikes, if necessary

2 UN: Representatives from the OCP have been visiting the capital of Bikteim.

1 Multinational: Scientists have confirmed that your company is the source of the infection and the infection causes Zombie Behavior Spectrum Disorder (infected individuals become zombies)

1 Multinational : Despite the best efforts of your scientists, there is currently no cure or vaccine. Estimates suggest that a vaccine may be available in 6 months- 1 year.

2 Multinational : Workers in your factories are asking a lot of questions about sick co-workers. The unions are meeting frequently with workers from your manufacturing plants.

2 Multinational : The OCP has stated that if they come to power they will nationalize all industries and expel foreign investors from the country.

1 Humanitarian: Your aid workers have discovered a dramatic increase in violence toward individuals exhibiting ZBSD in rural areas.

1 Humanitarian: Fear and superstition have increased the population's interest in the Movement for Conservative Nationalism politics. MCN representatives are trying to organize people in the rural areas to depose the current government.

2 Humanitarian : Activists of the movement "Occupy Ocea" and workers organizations are working with you and are waiting for your instructions on whether they should increase political pressure or not.

2 Humanitarian : Independent militia groups have set up road blocks restricting movement between rural areas and the cities.

1 National government: Citizens in Ocea calling themselves “Occupy Ocea” are gathering in public parks and protesting the lack of government response to the outbreak.

1 National government: Hospital workers report that the infections are much more serious than expected. The doctors don't have the right medication to deal with all of the infected individuals and patients are becoming increasingly violent and dangerous for hospital staff.

1 National government: The opposition party OCP is starting to publicly oppose your administration's decisions.

2 National government: Independent militia groups have set up road blocks restricting movement between rural areas and the cities.

2 National government: The OCP has indicated that they are unwilling to negotiate with your government.

2 National government: Government officials close to the GRI company executives have heard rumors that the pharmaceutical company is the cause of the outbreak.